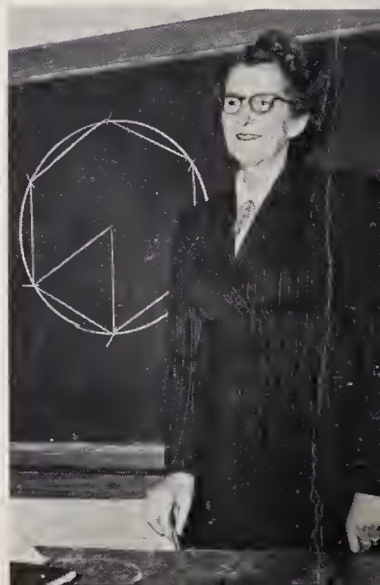
Here is your 1954 Edition of WINDSWEPT ECHOES. We hope you like this annual, for it is the result of a year's work. Now we are finished, and don't listen to anybody who might try to tell you we are sorry. Yet, we have enjoyed our task, and we shall feel rewarded if we hear you discussing our annual favorably. We ask you to pardon our mistakes, for we realize that they're just as much a part of the book as are the good points. Hurry now, and see the book and we sincerely hope you like it.

DEDICATION

Because her keen wit and intellect challenge us to put forth our best ettorts, because we know that she has a deep desire to encourage us to do greater things, and because we always know that she is our friend, for these reasons and many more, we the Annual Staff do sincerely and gratefully dedicate the 1954 Edition of "Windswept Echoes" to

MRS. ANNE REID.



"And wisely tell what hour o' the day
The clock does strike by Algebra."

Butler

BRUCE THARRINGTON

SUPERINTENDENT

"The twig is so easily bended
I have banished the rule and the rod,
I have taught them the goodness of knowledge,
They have taught me the goodness of God;
My heart is the dungeon of darkness,
Where I shut them for breaking a rule;
My frown is sufficient correction
My love is the law of the school."

Dickinson
